

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

YESTERDAY.
Meeting of St. John's Circle, King's Daughters, at 4:30 P. M. in the home of Mrs. B. A. Ford, No. 2300 East Broad Street.
Mrs. L. L. Lewis at regular Monday afternoon meeting in Woman's Club.
TO-DAY.
Meeting of central committee, A. P. V. A., at 12 M. in Virginia Historical Society.
Meeting of Branch Allen Auxiliary, Home for Incubates, at 11 A. M. in Murphy's Annex.
Junior Oakwood Memorial Association at 4:30 P. M., with Mrs. C. W. Massie, No. 2721 East Broad Street.
Silver tea from 5 to 7 P. M. at No. 1303 West Avenue.

Election of Officers.
The election of officers for Holywood Memorial Association will be held early in April, the exact date to be announced later. Through its president, the Holywood Memorial Association recently received an invitation from the Junior Confederate Memorial Association of New Orleans, La., to be present at the unveiling of the Confederate seal window, an occasion of much interest, taking place in Memorial Hall, New Orleans.

The annual meeting of the association will occur early this year on account of the convention in Richmond, on May 31st, of the Southern Confederate Memorial Association, the sessions of which will be held in the lecture room of Second Baptist Church, at Franklin and Adams Streets.

Veterans Entertained.
The veterans at Lee Camp Soldiers' Home were delightfully entertained on Friday evening, when a splendid concert program under the direction of Mrs. S. E. Liggan was rendered.

Following is the program:
Song by Mr. P. T. Bue's Bible class; piano solo, Miss Grace Douglas; vocal solo, Mr. Tignor; piano solo, Miss Margaret McCullough; quartet and chorus, reading, Miss Aline Yeaman; duet, Misses Michaela, reading, Mr. Lee Liggan; solo and chorus, reading, Miss Lillie Hechler; solo, Mr. Tignor; piano solo, Miss Aline Yeaman; solo, Mr. Crowder; chorus, reading, Mrs. William Hechler was accompanied for the evening.

Jr. O. M. A. to Meet.
The Junior Oakwood Memorial Association will meet this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with Mrs. C. W. Massie, at No. 2721 East Broad Street. A full attendance is desired.

Committee to Meet.
The central committee of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will hold its regular meeting at noon to-day in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society.

Spend Summer at Willoughby.
Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Elyson and family will spend the summer at Willoughby Beach.

The report that the Elyson home in Richmond has been negotiated for or that it will be rented next autumn is a mistake, as the family will return in October and entertain friends

J.B. Mosby & Co.

Greatest Sale of Silks in Richmond's History

This is Silk Week Here.

Our reasons for saying this can easily be appreciated if you will examine these Silks and their prices. Exclusive merchandise is scarce this season; that's what many merchants tell you. That does not apply here; we anticipated this scarcity months ago, also anticipated the advance prices, and we bought accordingly. We advise an early inspection and selection on these, as many of styles shown by us are in limited quantities and cannot be duplicated.

75c Checked and Plaid Taffeta Here at 59c
All silk, good weight, in neat checks and stylish plaids. Special, 59c.

85c Plaid Taffeta Here at 65c
Extra heavy weight, all spring shadings, stylish plaids; as good as many houses ask $1.00 for. Special, 65c.

50c 27-Inch White Habutua Silks Here at 39c
27 inches wide, all pure silk; much better than any you have ever bought at 50c. Special, 39c.

85c Pongee Tussahs Here at 69c
All silk, new and stylish, warp printed designs, in all new colorings. Special, 69c.

Warp Printed Wash Silks Here at 59c
All silk, new and stylish, warp printed designs, in all new colorings. Special, 59c.

French Printed Foulards
IN DRESS LENGTHS—NO TWO ALIKE. MOSBY & CO.'S EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS.

Cold type cannot describe their style and beauty. You have only to see them to become convinced of their newness. Prices: 55c $1.00, $1.25, $1.50.

Rajah
THERE ARE MANY IMITATIONS, BUT THE GENUINE RAJAH IS SOLD EXCLUSIVELY HERE

All silk, stylish and dressy, and in all the new and staple shades, and in stylish plaids and harkline checks—
Plain Rajah $1.25
Fancy Rajah $1.50, $1.75

Poems You Ought to Know.

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Prof. Charles Eliot Norton.

No. 1102.

O Lord! That Seest from Yon Starry Height

By FRANCISCO DE ALDANA.
(Translated by Henry W. Longfellow.)

Other selections from this author, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

O Lord! that seest from yon starry height
Centered in one the future and the past,
Fashioned in thine own image, see how fast
The world obscures in me what once was bright!
Eternal Sun! the warmth which thou hast given
To cheer life's flowery April fast decays;
Yet in the hoary winter of my days
Forever green shall be my trust in Heaven.
Celestial King! Oh! let thy presence pass
Before my spirit, and an image fair
Shall meet that look of mercy from on high.
As the reflected image in a glass
Doth meet the look of him who seeks it there,
And owes its being to the gazer's eye.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 11, 1903. One is published each day.

of their own during the meeting of the Episcopal Convention here.

Silver Tea.

A silver tea will be given this afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock, at No. 1303 West Avenue, for the benefit of the First Baptist Church.

Misses Charlotte Miller and Ella Jackson are in charge of arrangements, and they will be assisted by a number of popular young ladies. The list includes Misses Myra Chambers, Juliet Martin Henningham Elliott, Martha Martin, Maria Milnes and Daisy Boykin.

Mrs. Evan Chesterman, Misses Jessie and Daisy Wilson and Mrs. Allen Belvin will render a program of music and recitations. Refreshments will be served and an enjoyable afternoon is anticipated.

Bureau of Information.
The Daughters of the Confederacy in Richmond have established a bureau of information in regard, primarily, to accommodating visitors during the Confederate Reunion. Hostesses desiring to take boarders or to rent rooms are requested to send in writing, to No. 611 East Franklin Street, the number and location of rooms they have, the price of these rooms with or without board; also the price with breakfast only, and the difference for single occupants and for several in a room. No communications concerning the rooms will be held over the phone. Persons writing concerning them must give their names, street and number in full.

Celebrate Anniversary.
The Richmond Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union has issued cards for a reception, to be held Thursday evening next, at 8:30 o'clock, at No. 408 East Grace Street, in celebration of its twentieth anniversary.

The union was founded in 1887, and has grown to large proportions. Mrs. G. M. Johnson is president and Miss Eva Burruss is secretary.

Off to Far South.
Mrs. Jed Hotchkiss, of Staunton, Va., who is the guest in Richmond of her niece, Mrs. J. Taylor Elyson, at No. 10 East Franklin Street, leaves this week for Rock Lodge and other points of interest in Florida. She will be accompanied by Miss Sarah Hotchkiss and the two will remain South for some weeks.

At Woman's Club.

Very amusing and unique was the first issue of the Woman's Club newspaper given in life-size edition at the club yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. L. L. Lewis, as editor-in-chief, was chairman for the afternoon, and with her editorial staff, occupied the rostrum. Mrs. Thomas Cary Johnson announced the items in their proper order.

First came the leading editorial by the editor-in-chief, in which she described what constituted a good newspaper and outlined the policy of her journal.

Mrs. Charles Ferrell followed with "paraphrase" containing many clever hits at club members and accepted institutions in general. She was roundly applauded.

Mrs. H. A. Sampson, as a general reporter, read bits of interesting gossip and connected general news stories with great deftness.

Miss Winston's story, "How Mrs. Thompson Told the Truth," was short, but carefully balanced, and its mixture of humor and pathos was keenly appreciated.

A dainty "Lullaby" by Mrs. John Hunter, was read by Mrs. Johnson. Its lulling melody was beautifully wrought out, and it was one of the best contributions to the newspaper.

Mrs. Sampson next gave an interesting resume of the work done by the Literary Round Table during the year.

Filled with humor and sharp satire was the Woman's Page, edited by Mrs. Moses D. Hoge. Mrs. Hoge's "Answers to Correspondents" and "Recipes" kept her audience in continual laughter, and her description of the latest Eastern hotel was greeted with prolonged applause.

Mrs. Baldwin Buchanan, as dramatic editor, was bright and witty, and Mrs. Ferrell's "personals" were strictly true to life.

A colored supplement in the shape of a humorous poem was edited by Mrs. John Hunter.

In the intervals between the several editorials, Miss Sherrard Wilcox took personal advertisements and Associated Press items over the telephone.

At the close it was announced that there would be an "extra" edition in a few minutes. This consisted of charming dramatic impersonations by Miss Wilcox.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Austin Brockenbrough, Mrs. J. G. Miller, Miss Marion Forbes, Miss Nannie Davis, Dr. Moses D. Hoge, and Mr. Alfred B. Williams.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. William Graham Harvey and Miss Nannie Tazewell Stegar were the guests of Mrs. Preston Le Roy Roper in Petersburg. Mrs. Roper will open her cottage at Buckroe Beach the first of April, and anticipate many house-parties there during the spring and summer.

Mrs. George M. Cease has returned from a visit to Mrs. J. V. Alfriend in Norfolk.

Rev. C. E. Stuart has returned from a visit to Ashland, much improved in health.

Mrs. Charlotte Taney, of Danville, is spending several days here.

Rev. William Lockhart Ball is spending the week in Charlottesville.

Mr. Herman Doodles and family, of Lambert's Point, Va., have moved to Richmond, and will make their home here.

Rev. F. A. Ridout, of Fincastle, spent last week in Richmond.

Mr. C. E. McIntosh and family, of this city, have moved to Gordonsville to make their home.

Miss Katharine Burks is the guest of relatives in Newport News.

Mrs. John L. Enkin has returned to her home in Blacksburg, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Carter Osterberg, of this city, who will spend a month with her.

Mrs. Moncure Perkins was the guest of Mrs. J. Davis Christian, in Lynchburg, for several days last week.

Miss Kate Jones, of this city, who, with Miss Beattie Withers, of Ridgeville, N. C., is a guest of Miss Mabel Robinson, of Main Street, Danville.

Mrs. Jones was a guest of honor at a card party given by Miss Robinson on Friday evening. Six-hand euchre was played, Miss Jones and Miss Withers each receiving a handsome gold veil pin.

Mr. W. R. Jones has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Taylor, Jr., of Staunton, Va.

Rev. and Mrs. William Mundhenke have issued cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Flora, to Mr. John Charles Craven, of Newport News, Va., on Wednesday, March 27th, in the parlors of St. John's rectory, Richmond, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Craven will reside at Hotel Pocahontas, Newport News.

Mr. James Hore Tyler, Jr., has returned from a recent visit to his parents, former Governor and Mrs. J. Hore Tyler, at Radford, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Pender, formerly of this city, are spending some time with Mr. L. Pender, of Norfolk, until their home on Westover Avenue, that city, is finished.

The wedding of Miss Placidia A. Hadden to Mr. William A. Edwards, of Northumberland county, Va., took place at Hotel Bennett, Baltimore, on Saturday last. The Rev. W. H. Edwards, of Petersburg, Va., father of the groom, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hudnall, of Redville, Va., and Mrs. J. R.

W.B. REDUSO CORSETS

ERECT FORM 744

IS an excellent model for well developed figures. Its closely stitched front subdues abdominal prominence and rounds the figure into graceful lines. Made of white imported coutil. Trimmed across top with lace and ribbon. Hose supporters at front and hips.

Sizes 19 to 36.

Price, $2.00

NUFORM 403

WILL fit any slender or average figure. Long above the waist which it defines very distinctly, showing a perfectly straight line down the front of the figure. Made of white and drab coutil. Trimmed with lace and ribbon. Hose supporters front and sides.

Sizes 18 to 30.

Price, $1.00

NUFORM 447

FOR well developed figures, is a reverse gore model. The gore lines run backwards, a construction which restrains undue development below the back. Medium high bust, long hips and extra long back. Made of an excellent quality of white coutil, elaborately trimmed with lace and ribbon. Hose supporters front and sides.

Sizes 19 to 30.

Price, $3.00

H. Edwards, of Petersburg, Va., were among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry St. George Tucker, who have their home in Norfolk, Va., gave a beautiful tea Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Morgan Pendleton, of Lexington, Va.

The Baton Rouge Times, of Louisiana, says in a recent issue:

Mrs. G. W. Breckinridge, of Fincastle, Va., visited her parents, having visited relatives in the capital city before her recent marriage, will reach here to-morrow, to be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Coates.

Mrs. Breckinridge has been a visitor in New Orleans during the carnival, and has since been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Maurin, in Donaldsonville. This charming woman has many friends in this city, who will extend her a warm welcome during her visit here.

Miss Kate Elmer Puller gave a most successful entertainment Friday evening in the Congregational Church, Park View, Portsmouth, Va. Miss Puller was assisted by Mrs. Etheridge and Miss Lelia Scott, who rendered vocal and instrumental solos. Miss Puller was the guest of Mrs. I. B. Campbell, of Park View, during her stay in Portsmouth.

Miss Florence Y. Jeter, of Tempest, Va., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Paul D. Bigger, in Richmond, last week.

Miss Annie Boutin has returned to Richmond from a visit to her cousin, Mrs. A. P. Robertson, in Staunton, Va. She will go from Richmond to Washington.

Dr. W. D. Lindsey, Jr., of Frankfort, Ky., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. George F. Merrill.

Rev. George H. Sheriff, who has been pastor of Four-Mile Creek Baptist Church for the past four or five years, and who has recently tendered his resignation, will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday. Mr. Sheriff has accepted the pastorate of Sharon Baptist Church, in King William county. The congregation of Four-Mile Creek Baptist Church is loth to part with their pastor, as the church has prospered under his pastorate. This church is now about to receive substantial damages from the United States for burning of the church building during the Confederate war by the Federal Army.

Mr. Osediah Walton and wife, nee Miss Belle Harris, who were married in Fulton last Wednesday, have gone to their home in Mecklenburg county.

Mr. Mills, of Florida, has purchased a farm in Henrico county, near Glendale.

Mrs. W. J. King is the guest of relatives and friends in Washington.

Miss Daisy Hayre, of Eastview, lower Henrico, quite sick at the home of Mrs. W. S. Brockwell.

Mrs. Seth Morgan and Mrs. Lila Burton, of Norfolk, are guests of Captain B. S. Rice and family on Denby Street.

Mrs. McEwen, of Petersburg, was a recent visitor to Fulton.

Squire James O'Grady, who has been confined to his home on Denby Street by sickness for the past two weeks, is improving. The Fulton Mission is still dispensing food, clothing and bread to deserving families in Fulton. This good work cannot go on unless contributions come in faster than they are needed in the last month. The Rev. David Hepburn will receive any contributions to the worthy cause.

Miss Judith Kemp, of the Mary Baldwin Institute, visited her parents on the Williamsburg Road recently.

Mr. Richard Frayser is quite sick at her home on Denby Street.

Mrs. H. Dudley Chadwick and her little son, Dudley, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Perry, on Orleans Street.

A skating rink has been started in Fulton in Korea's Hall on Orleans Street. It is under the management of A. L. Enoch.

Mr. J. C. Woodin, of lower Henrico, was bitten on the hand by a vicious snake several days ago. His hand is badly swollen, but no serious results are apprehended. Mr. Woodin is just recovering from the effects of a worm bite on the neck, which he received while in his cornfield last summer.

The little child of Mr. T. J. Mason, of Orleans Street, that was badly burned last Sunday while playing near the fire, is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Thompson have returned to their homes here from a pleasant stay with friends on Church Hill.

Mr. Frank Purke, who has been ill at his home for several weeks, is still in a very precarious condition.

Miss Goldie Martin and little sister, of this place, were the recent guests of Miss Lila Scott, of Fincastle, Va.

Mrs. F. C. Gernsman has two very sick children at her home here, but the attending physician thinks they are improving.

Mrs. Fannie Felvey, who has been confined to her home here for some time, is still indisposed.

Mrs. Fannie Fields has returned to her home at Ellersboro, Va., after a stay of several days with her sister, Mrs. Gordon, of Fairfax.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Steinbach, of the Creighton Road, have returned from a pleasant stay with Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, of Fairmount.

Mrs. Sheppard had as her guests during the past week Mr. and Mrs. Woody Patterson, of Richmond.

Mrs. Davis Dean and children were the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin, of Cedar Lane.

Miss Susie Powell was the recipient of a delightful surprise party at her home a few evenings ago, given her by a few of her friends. Among those present were Misses Daisy and Lottie Caver, Belle Jenkins, Miss Powell, Grace Lane, Ethel Thibault, Lucy Minor, Mamma, Eddie Turner, Harry Samuels, Lewis Johnson, Charlie Thomas, Raymond, Lewis and Floyd Whitman.

Mrs. Sally Thomas has returned home from a two weeks' visit to her sister, Mrs. Johns, of Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. John Tyler and children expect to leave in a few days for Covington, Va., where

